the church has a reservoir of wisdom and truth in the bible and a role to play in witnessing to that truth the bible is full of mandates and challenges that ask us the disciples of jesus christ to make our light shine so that others may see our good works and give glory to our god in heaven matt 5 16 the purpose of this book written by 34 dedicated christian scholars and community practitioners is to help christ s church to understand how this world and the people who live in it think feel and react to some of the issues they face in their daily lives and how to bring peace justice and compassion to the society that surrounds our homes churches and communities jesus says blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called children of god matt 5 9 shalom which we translate as peace means more than the absence of conflict to live in shalom as a peacemaker means we actively live our lives in a way that brings healing wholeness harmony and well being to the lives of people we meet this is not a prescriptive book that will provide answers to all the social and missiological woes in society though there will be some guidelines for how to start various ministries instead the authors have attempted to describe some of the problems that exist in our societies and churches and have encouraged the readers as individuals as well as groups to find their own answers to many of the issues raised some of the issues raised will not be comfortable to discuss in church circles but we all hope that they will be treated with the same respect and compassion that jesus gives in response to each one of our needs

if you are a seventh day adventist christian you have no doubt heard of the shepherd s rod a message of present truth and reform first presented to leaders of the seventh day adventist church in the years 1929 and 1930 it has created much controversy in what every seventh day adventist should know about the shepherd s rod author garrick d augustus brings to light the historic and the theological reasons behind the rejection of the shepherd s rod message it exposes the systematic misinformation as well as the willful manipulations of the facts surrounding victor houteff and the movement he began more than eight decades ago it provides clear and accurate answers to the questions raised against the rod s message and it answers the objections church leaders have historically offered as proof against its bearing the credentials of inspiration augustus fused the forensic methods of evidence analytics as well as the investigative method of internal evidence analysis to the claims brought against the message by the leaders of the seventh day adventist church his research took him from the heritage library in loma linda california to the biblical research committee in silver spring maryland and beyond what every seventh day adventist should know about the shepherd s rod journeys through the pages of history and helps to separate truth from propaganda it takes a fresh look at an old controversy that began in eternity past and has played itself out in the rank and file of seventh day adventism this is a true account of the first seventh day adventist church and church school in the town of valle crucis north carolina this book is about the people who lived in that western north carolina community about the rough narrow crooked hollers and the well beaten wooded paths winding across the hills at the head of the hollers that shortened the distance for the people and students going to the church and school this book started out as an intense personal study by the author to evaluate and confirm his beliefs about god and salvation in regard to the teaching of the seventh day adventist church why is it that so many seventh day adventists do not have the assurance of salvation what criteria in the bible and what specifically in ellen g white s writings might lead someone to believe they were not fit for heaven that they did not qualify to be there that god would not forgive them and there was more required than just relying on jesus s sacrifice to cover their sins if they did not meet a strict set of rules would god cast them aside in the end in this book you will find out just who are the saved who are the lost and what happens to them in the end and what end times will look like according to ellen g white and the sda church the author estimates he has spent well in excess of ten thousand hours and has read over fifteen thousand pages of material over a seven year period in the preparation of this book it is the author s hope and prayer that this book will make the reader question not their belief in the saving grace of god and the loving sacrifice of jesus but rather question anything that might have come between them and that grace seventh day adventism is inextricably linked with the life and ministry of ellen g white this study examines her role in the church both in her lifetime and since her death in 1915 through her voluminous writings the passage of time and the general ecumenical climate of today make possible a more dispassionate study of white s work and insights which hold value for the whole christian church especially in the eschatological emphasis which lies at the center of her work this edition has incorporated some more details about the persons whose life stories are presented this book exposes a pending debt to fill an existing gap in the historic area that debt continues to be to recognize the fervour and enthusiasm to communicate the gospel that guided many women these women dedicated their lives in a self sacrificing and laborious way to contribute to establish and strengthen the spreading of the adventists beliefs in the countries that make up the present south american division of the seventh day adventist church this work recounts the story of some of those women all of them have been women of faith with their struggles and heartaches but also with hope and victories in christ their lives their dedication and their leadership inspired in others an intense longing to be sons and daughters of god their passion for doing good and honouring god gave fruits that today leave us indebted to them it is the author s desire that this book doesn t just fill a historic void but that it motivates and inspires the development of all the potential of the woman filled with the spirit of god that she may reflect his grace and mercy towards human beings

john churchill is a baptized seventh day adventist christian since may 30 1976 he is one of those who came up through the ranks in the church having a zeal from the lord from his early teens that would not let him just sit down in church or keep quiet about jesus sharing his faith came naturally and share he did he shared in any way possible he was on choirs taught sabbath school class conducted cottage meeting worship services in homes wherever permitted did bible studies with anyone willing to listen was involved in the missionary volunteer movement now adventist youth pathfindering and all it entails and so on as he showed his commitment and zeal for the lord s work he was given more and more responsibilities in the church and was involved in church leadership from his early years as a christian john churchill has been a church elder for many years and was ordained as an elder december 31 1994 he has had many encounters with teachers of falsehood over the many years of his ministry these encounters include a lot of experience with an offshoot group of the seventh day adventist church called the the shepherd s rod john churchill is a lay evangelist and the founder of battle cry ministry which pursues the worldwide aim of its mission through its website battlecryministry netadvent org he decided since about 2003 to write a book that would address the shepherd s rod offshoot problem in the church as he saw that the group was seemingly on the increase and causing problems and pulling away members of the church to become members of the group the book would help to not only educate members but help them to know how to deal with the problem in a very realistic practical way the book would also appeal to members of the group to cease their activities and rejoin the church coming back on the platform this is a completely new typeset of the monumental 1957 classic containing an extensive historical and theological introduction and detailed in text notations by

George R. Knight originally produced by the Ministerial Association of the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventists. Questions on doctrine were widely acclaimed and distributed in the late 1950s and early 1960s as a forthright answer to questions from evangelicals about key elements of Adventist doctrine. Controversy regarding the book's position on the nature of Christ and the atonement soon stopped its circulation as part of the Adventist Classic Library. Knight's essays provide the background for how the book came about and describes the interaction of the principal players involved in the crisis that shelved this classic work for more than a generation.

Any group that loses a sense of its history begins to die. To look through the door of the future, one must occasionally glance back through the windows of the past. Windows provides such glimpses into the history of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Dr. E. K. Vandevere has collected together the personal and contemporary accounts of men and women who shaped denominational history. Their words bring the church's story alive, revealing both its turning points and its personal moments through letters, diaries, periodical articles, and personal manuscripts. Dr. Vandevere lets the pioneers remind us of the Seventh Day Adventist heritage: Millerite disappointment, reorientation, Joseph Bates, James White, Ellen White, Sabbath reform, adopting a name and organizational structure, conditional immortality, and the resurrection preachers of the faith expanding beyond New England. Battle Creek Church finances, health, and Seventh Day Adventism, Civil War worries, Seventh Day Adventists and worship, educational reform, moments in missions, Canright, 1888, the church at the turn of the century, conflict over control, fires in Battle Creek, pantheism, moving out of Battle Creek, Mrs. White dies, World War I, Daniells, decades, index.
